

Friday, October 16 2009

International Day of Opposition to Monsanto

Maine Events & Activities

Teach-ins & Discussions:

Gaining Seed Sovereignty & Food Sovereignty in Maine

with Bob St.Peter, Food for Maine's Future & Ben Hummel, Colby Student

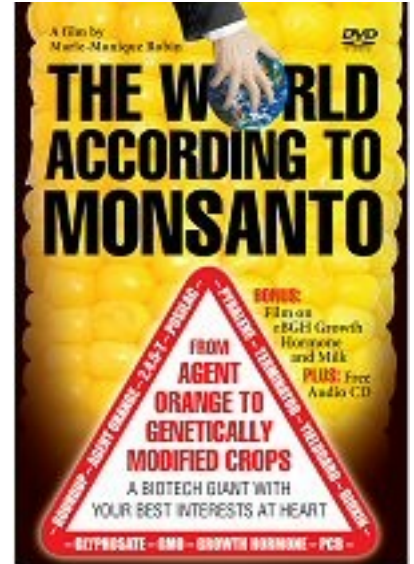

1:00pm Colby College, Foss Dining Hall

3:00pm University of Maine Farmington, North Dining Hall A (in the Olsen Student Center)

The World According to Monsanto film screenings & patent-free seed swaps

bring seeds to share and your own envelopes or containers no patented seeds please!

12pm U Maine Fort Kent, Nadeau Conference Center

4pm Colby College, Olin Science Bld. Rm 1

4pm Unity College, The Tavern

7pm The Morris Farm, Wiscasset

7pm U Maine Farmington, Thomas Auditorium

7pm Gibbs Library, Washington

7pm Monroe Town Hall, Monroe

7pm Peace & Justice Center of Eastern Maine, Bangor

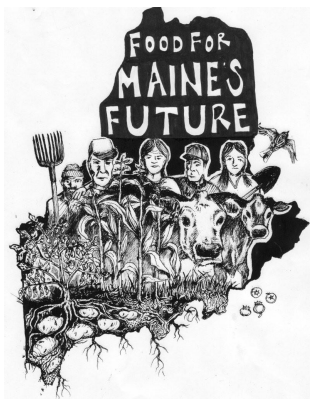

7pm David's Folly Farm, Brooksville

7pm Maine College of Art, Portland

7pm Hartford Town Hall, Hartford

7pm Bates College, Lewiston

7:30pm College of the Atlantic, Gates Auditorium

October 16 International Day of Opposition to Monsanto

This day marks the first international day of opposition to Monsanto called by La Via Campesina, an international movement of peasants and farmers. These events are part of a global day of protest and celebration.

Combat
Monsanto

BUILDING A WORLD FREE FROM MONSANTO

Sponsored by Food for Maine's Future Voice in Maine for the International Movement for Food Sovereignty www.foodformainesfuture.org for more info call 244-0908